Tune into gardening on our BBC Somerset slot

Want something good to do tonight? Tune in to Public Health's popular feature on Charlie Taylor's BBC Somerset show between 7-8pm - this week's theme is Gardening and Wellbeing. You won't believe the wellbeing benefits you will gain from pottering in the garden, community gardening, or even trying your hand at growing herbs. James Cross, the Head Gardener at the Bishop's Palace will be giving lots of hints and tips - you won't want to miss it! The frequencies to tune in are 95.5FM, 1566AM, DAB, or listen at www.bbc.co.uk/bbcsomerset and on the BBC Sounds app.

Get digitally silly this summer

This year sees the return of the ever-popular Summer Reading Challenge with a slight twist; a new digital platform called the "Silly Squad" will offer lots of fun and exciting adventures to keep children aged 4-11 entertained. Although the Challenge will only be available online in 2020, it still will provide children with the educational value and 'fun factor' it has had in previous years.
