Key Messages this week

1. Government confirms new 'unitary' Somerset Council

Following consideration by both Houses of Parliament, the Secretary of State has made the Somerset Structural Changes Order 2022 which paves the way for the new Somerset Council to be established on 1 April 2023.

The Order comes into force on 16 March 2022 and gives approval to the local elections on 5 May for 110 councillors to the County Council and to the elections for city, town and parish councils across Somerset.

It also hands responsibility for building the single unitary council to a new Implementation Executive, while setting the legal basis for the new council that will replace Somerset County Council and four district councils (Mendip, Sedgemoor, Somerset West and Taunton and South Somerset) on 1 April 2023.

Following the approval of the Structural Changes Order, the notice of elections will be published on Monday 21 March and nomination papers for prospective candidates will need to be submitted by 5 April.

3. National action needed to address phosphates issue

Councils in Somerset are a step closer to minimising delay and uncertainty around planning applications which could contribute to unacceptable amounts of phosphates in the Somerset Levels and Moors.

They have now received a detailed report on potential solutions which would enable developments to come forward. However, it is clear from the report that action is also needed at national level to address the issue and unlock housing development.

The district councils at Somerset West and Taunton, Mendip, Sedgemoor and South Somerset together with Somerset County Council have been working in partnership to address the issue using funding support provided by Homes England.

The Councils will now study the report, commissioned from consultants Royal Haskoning, which has helped to identify measures required to unlock current and future developments impacted by the phosphates issue.

More information on Phosphates on the Somerset Levels and Moors Ramsar Site can be found on the SWT website.

4. SWT Members attend Seaward Way Turf Cutting Ceremony

The housing mix consists of 21 two, three- and four-bedroom houses and 33 one- and two-bedroom flats, enabling accommodation for up to 177 people. Three properties will be fully adapted for residents with mobility support requirements and a play area space will also be included.

To mark the occasion a turf cutting ceremony was held on Tuesday, 15 March at the site.

The building work is projected to complete during 2023 to 2024. Priority will be given to those living in or having connections to Minehead.

6. County VIPs mark the Platinum Jubilee

Dignitaries from across the county came together last Friday as part of the National Association of Civic Officers' Tree Planting Day, to plant trees and unveil commemorative plaques in a tribute to the Queen's Platinum Jubilee.

With 11 March 2022 signifying the 70th day of the year in which The Queen reached the 70th anniversary of her accession, SWT held ceremonies at 10am in Hawthorn Park, Taunton; 11am at Fox's Field, Wellington; and 1pm in Culvercliffe, Minehead.

During the ceremonies, the dignitaries unveiled plaques and planted a final tree at each of the three sites as part of a nationwide project known as the Queen's Green Canopy (QGC). Initiated by HRH The Prince of Wales, the QGC encourages individuals and organisations to plant trees in celebration of HM Queen Elizabeth II's 70-year reign and to mitigate climate change.

The green light has been given to a programme of work opening up SWT's flagship redevelopment site at Firepool.

It is a paid part time job that requires flexible working for about 24 days per year.

The ideal candidate would have a keen interest in history and civic events, be a confident public speaker and enjoy meeting people in social situations.

14. Somerset Waste Partnership Services (SWP)

And the winner is....

The votes have been counted and SWP now has a name for its new repair and reuse initiative.

Nearly 1,500 people cast a vote for one of five short-listed name options for the new service which will see a customised van travelling the county, supporting Somerset's network of repair and reuse groups.

'Phoenix' and 'Revival' had strong showings, but in the end 'Fixy /Fixy McFixface' came out on top, a throwback to 'Boaty McBoatface' the famous winner of the 2014 poll to name a British research vessel.

SWP thanks everyone who took the time to get involved. The number of votes is a promising sign of the interest there should be in this exciting new service. We are working hard to bring the Fixy Service to life, with the aim of launching in the summer or earlier if possible.

In its first year, Fixy will be dedicated to all things electrical - from toasters to tablets, record players to remote controls - if it has a plug or takes batteries, this project is about giving it a new lease of life when it stops working. Providing practical help, useful tools and a PAT testing service, the van will encourage people to get things fixed and reused rather than throwing them away or recycling them.

The transit van will also visit events, schools and businesses to provide hands-on help, training and promote the repair and reuse initiative. If its first year is a success, the project may continue and be used to support repair and reuse initiatives across the board.

It is being led by Resource Futures and also working with Donate-IT, a local community-interest company which refurbishes laptops, tablets and phones and distributes them to families who need them. The van will have a collection point for these items. Donate-IT will securely wipe data from donations.

The Somerset project is one of three being funded by this year's Ecosurety Exploration Fund which supports innovative approaches to reducing the environmental impact of packaging, batteries or electrical items.

Collection day information is also available online using the "My Collection Day" feature on the somersetwaste.gov.uk website. Calendars can be downloaded for printing or directly into your laptop or mobile device's calendar - creating helpful automatic reminders.

You can find lots more information about Recycle More online at somersetwaste.gov.uk/recycle-more Extra guidance and support can be requested using a form on this page, or by calling SWT.

New Council for Somerset

On 1 April 2023, Somerset will become a unitary authority, replacing the current County Council and four District Councils with a single council governing the whole area. Find out more here.

Local Government Association backs Local Community Networks

The Local Government Association (LGA) has awarded a £50k funding boost to help develop innovative new Local Community Networks (LCNs) in Somerset.

LCNs promise to set a new standard for keeping a large unitary council embedded in the towns and villages it serves.

The grant is to develop LCNs and deliver new ways of working prior to April 1, 2023 (Vesting Day), when the unitary authority officially begins.

Some of the £50k will be used to facilitate three community-led LCN pilots which have been established in different areas of the county (Frome area, in Exmoor and in the Wincanton area). They are bringing public services together with local people and other community organisations to explore opportunities around children and families; health and wellbeing; and local street scene and highways matters in the first instance.

The grant will enable the pilots to explore how some of the grant can be used to leverage match funding or other resources, and some of the finance will be ringfenced to support voluntary sector engagement.

From potholes, blocked drains and broken manhole covers, to overgrown vegetation, damaged pavements or cycle paths, faulty traffic lights or missing markings - they can all be reported in just minutes from a smartphone, tablet or computer.

The full range and how to report is available here www.somerset.gov.uk/roads-and-transport/report-a-problem-on-the-road/.

Health and Welfare

Coronavirus (COVID-19)

Since 24 February, the legal requirement to self-isolate has been removed in England and replaced with guidance for living safely with the virus.

Case numbers have increased significantly in the last week so we should all continue to do all we can to help prevent the transmission of COVID-19, especially to the most vulnerable in our communities.

The SCC Public Health team still advise basic infection control measures should be followed, as these will help slow the transmission of many seasonal illnesses and have a positive impact on reducing sickness levels and improving business continuity. These include regularly washing your hands, maintaining appropriate cleaning regimes and keeping occupied spaces well ventilated.

Somerset COVID Cases

In the week ending 13 March, approximately 111,064 tests were carried out across the county. There were 5,655 new confirmed cases identified by these tests. The rates of COVID-19 remain very high and have almost doubled in the last reporting week to 1,005.8 per 100,000. This is above both the South-West average and the national average.

Hospitalisation data for Somerset has increased by a significant amount over the last week to around 150 COVID-19 in patients in Somerset hospitals. The majority of these patients are not ill with COVID-19 but have been detected through routine screening.

Please note the Public Dashboard is being reviewed following changes to the national policy. This week, the Office for National Statistics shows that around one in every 30 people have coronavirus, and in Somerset, our case rates are still high.

Symptoms of COVID-19 or a Positive Test

Children and young people who test positive for COVID-19 are advised not to attend their education setting while they are likely to be infectious. They should take an LFD test from 5 days after their symptoms started (or the day their test was taken if they did not have symptoms) followed by another one the next day. If both these test results are negative, they should return to their educational setting if they normally attend one; if they feel well enough to do so and do not have a temperature. They should continue to follow the guidance for their educational setting.

With case rates rising rapidly Public Health are concerned to see some national employers are requesting staff who have tested COVID-19 positive to go into workplaces, contrary to guidance. While it is no longer a legal requirement to isolate if you have COVID-19, there is a risk to worker health and business continuity, and for customer-facing businesses to customer health and safety, from the spread of COVID-19 from infected persons.

The general duties under the Health and Safety at Work Act continue to apply, it being a legal requirement to ensure the health, safety and welfare of employees and others, such as customers, as far as is reasonably practicable.

COVID-19 Testing

Free testing will come to an end on 31 March, with most people having to pay for PCR and lateral flow tests from 1 April.

In the meantime, free Lateral Flow Tests are still available to order online. You can order one pack online every 3 days. A pack contains 7 tests.

Have you had your jabs? Update on COVID-19 Booster Programme

Over 80% of eligible residents have received two doses of the vaccination. The Vaccination Programme is working with health and community partners to identify locations for mobile vaccination pop-up clinics. By localising the offer, the programme aims to reduce the barriers to access and better understand community needs.

The boosters are very important as they significantly reduce the likelihood of serious illness or hospitalisation should you catch COVID-19 so, if offered, please make a booking without delay.

Once you have received the national invitation you will be able to go on the National Booking site: nhs.uk/CovidVaccination or call 119. Vaccination centres across Somerset remain busy, but with slots becoming available all the time, please remember to check the National Booking Service regularly.

Did you witness racially aggravated incident on A38 in Taunton?

ASP are appealing for witnesses to come forward who may have seen a racially aggravated public order incident in Taunton recently.

It happened on the A38 Wellington Road at about 5.15pm on Tuesday 8 March.

The victim was driving towards the town centre when she saw a cyclist riding his bike and using a mobile phone near the hospital. Stopping at the traffic lights, at the junction with Parkfield Road, she challenged him about what he was doing.

The cyclist is reported to have responded by using racially abusive language and kicking the victim's car. No damage was caused.
